ASPI's CODE of ETHICS

1. To hold inviolate the concepts of free enterprise and unselfish service to the public.
2. To continually strive to gain respect of the industry on both the community and national level.
3. Safety and welfare of the public in the installation, maintenance and operation of swimming pools.
4. To support all efforts to improve swimming pool products and service, and to encourage research and the development of new materials and methods.
5. To advertise and sell the merits of their own products and refrain from attacking competitors or reflecting unfairly on their products, service or methods of doing business.
6. To reveal all the material facts, to avoid concealment of information and refrain from the use of innuendos in advertising and selling that might cause consumers to be misled, so that the truth about their services or products may be fully understood by the trusting as well as the analytical.
7. To advertise only bona fide prices and products and to refrain from the use of "bait" advertising methods.
8. To design or build in a manner compatible in every respect with public health and safety, and to comply with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations.
9. To fulfill all contractual obligations, to offer a reasonable warranty of products and services, and to perform on such warranty, either written or implied, where justifiable claims are in order, and to do so without hesitation.

ASPI MEMBERSHIP DOESN'T COST – IT PAYS!

We are constantly working to protect and improve the Pool-Spa industry for the service people, the specialists and the corporate suppliers.
